Call to Order

President Sherry Seiwert called the business meeting to order at 6:30pm.

Minutes

Changes to the minutes as posted on the FSNA website were approved and will be added.

Treasurer's Report

Submitted by treasurer Lynn Schaller, beginning balance for October was $4898.32, ending balance was $4973.32. Two dues checks were submitted for deposit.

Directory

Susan Dobson said the directory should be ready in about a month. Ad space is still available.

Crime Watch

Joe Goeller described an attempted home invasion of an occupied home at Sherman and 61st Street between 11pm and 2:30am. Perpetrators were seen to have faces covered. The homeowner armed himself and called police, who arrived before breakin occurred and caught two suspects. Discussion followed.

Ken Ingle reported a breakin at their home in mid-June. Several items of value were taken and not recovered so far.

New Business

Joe Goeller announced availability of "Kids Dart" signs and related brochures were available from his home at 61st and Sherman. Also thanks to Helen Boyer for action on the storm drains on Ewing from 62nd to Kessler.

Adjournment

The business meeting was adjourned at 7:00pm.

Guest Speaker

Scott Schneider, our new state senator and an FSNA resident was the speaker.

He will serve until the 2012 election. Scott was elected by the Republican precinct committeemen in our district to replace the previous officeholder for the remainder of the term. He was previously a councilman from 1999 to 2007. He has been appointed to the committees on Elections, Judiciary, Utilities and Education.

Scott anticipates coming issues in the Senate to include property tax caps, Sunday alcohol sales, local government reform, ethics, toll roads, and redistricting.
