Call to Order

President Joe Goeller called the meeting to order at 7:00pm.

Joe noted that gift certificates would now be from Marsh instead of Kroger.

Minutes

Minutes for the October Meeting as posted on the FSNA website were approved

Treasurer's Report

Treasurer Sherry Seiwert reported there were no expenditures or income for the month. The bank balance stands at 4633.67.

Crime Watch - Terry Dobson

Terry reported there was no activity in the last 30 days. There was a discussion on the whereabouts of the crime watch captain on Tuxedo, north of 62nd Street.

Sherry volunteered to follow up on crime stats.

Website

Joe reported that hits are averaging in the high twenties per day. Hot topics posted include telephone book and newspaper recycling at John Strange School.

Old Business

Kathie reported that Mayor Ballard was re-elected, and Christine Scales won over Kostas Poulakidas by 39 votes (out of a 10k vote total).

F-SNA/John Strange PTO Update – Tom Sturmer

Tom reported no PTO activity the past month.

62nd Street Multi-Use Trail

Ted suggested that the trail design be posted on our website. There was some discussion on the width of the trail and the removal of trees.

Neighborhood Survey

Sherry reported that, as of Nov 16, eighteen had copies of the survey have been received. The survey can be taken on the website also.

Jo Ann Klooz could not attend to report the Westmore Heights election results.

Guest Speaker

Our guest speaker was Gayle Stahl. She spoke about how to notify her neighbors about our invitation to join the FSNA. Possibly by a cover letter with the survey. There were eight people present from the Dearborn Street area.

New Business

Joe had distributed yard signs to directors' homes before the meeting. These signs announce an upcoming meeting to people driving by.

Tom spoke of the John Strange Dads' Club possibly planting the bulbs given out by Keep Indianapolis Beautiful.

Attendance Drawing

Winner of the drawing was Gayle Stahl.

Meeting adjourned at 7:58pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Barbara Hazel,
for Ken Ingle, Secretary
