Officer Becerra passed out sheets relating to crime activity in our neighborhood (which has been low over the past 5 months) , a personal property inventory to record valuables, burglary prevention tips and contact information for North District officers & the Crime Watch officers. He stressed over & over that the most important tool for fighting crime is community involvement. The police are stretched thin and need for citizens to be their eyes & ears. Terry passed out a sheet with the names of our Crime Watch Block Captains . This information is also on the FSNA website. Contact your Captain with concerns or reports.
